

Charitable Gaming Rules for KECC

What you cannot do!!!!

- You cannot conduct any game of chance except a raffle.
 - A game of chance is defined as “staking or risking something of value on the outcome of a contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device which: (a) Is based upon an element of chance, in accord with an agreement or understanding that someone will receive something of value if there is a certain outcome; and (b) does not include a contest or game in which eligibility to participate is determined by chance and the ultimate winner is determined by skill.” 820 KAR 1:001 Section 1 (32).
- Therefore, you cannot conduct:
 - cake walk;
 - a wheel game;
 - bingo;
 - poker tournament;
 - golf ball drop; and
 - NCAA bracket.

What you can do!!!!

- You may conduct a raffle.
 - Raffles include “split the pots.”
 - The total ticket sales for the raffle cannot be over $150 and you can have a raffle three (3) times a year.
 - You must sell all the tickets for the same price. You cannot sell “$1 a ticket or 3 for $2.”
- You can sell anything (bake sales, doughnuts, ice cream, etc.)
- You can have auctions (live or silent).
- You can have an event where everyone gets something that is equal to or greater than the cost to enter.
- You can have games of skill.
 - Basketball shooting;
 - Golf putting; or
 - Guessing jellybeans in a jar.

June 23, 2009 Presentation to KECC
by Leah Cooper Boggs, Director, Licensing and Compliance
Kentucky Department of Charitable Gaming
Henry G. Lackey, Commissioner
132 Brighton Park Blvd.
Frankfort, KY 40601
502-573-5528

www.dcg.ky.gov

